

General Physics 203 Recitation
Section 29 (Wednesday, 8:30AM – 9:50AM)
LSH-B116 (Livingston)

Instructor: Zain Kamal (zain.eris.kamal@rutgers.edu)

Recitation Structure:

- 3 students per group; TIMED group based worksheets (3 worksheets per recitation)
- 1 point per worksheet – group earns common grade on the worksheets
- No Electronic Resources or Devices may be used during recitation.
- Each student responsible for writing ONE of the worksheets (box or put * next to name to identify writer)
- Be detailed in your step by step work to arrive at the solution to the problem.
- Worksheets are graded based on accuracy of the completed work.
- Final 10-15 minutes of class: independent, closed note quiz (worth 2 points). May use Exam Formula Sheet.
- Weekly grade out of 5 points

How To Prepare for Recitation:

- Watch the pre-recorded videos for each chapter that are posted on the course website.
- Attend the Professor's Weekly Review Sessions offered through WebEx (link available in Canvas)
- Stay on top of the material and do your online Homework Assignments in a timely fashion.
- Go to Professor's or TA office hours to clarify any difficult topics.

Absences and Makeup Policy:

- If you are absent from recitation due to illness (including COVID-19) or other reasons, only ONE makeup during the semester will be permitted during the same week in a different section.
- To participate in a different section, you need permission via E-mail from the Recitation Course Assistant (email address on Canvas).
- Attendance in a different section without prior approval will result in ZERO credit for the recitation.
- To account for all absences, the Professor will drop the lowest two (2) recitation scores at the end of the semester. These dropped scores are strictly related to absences and are unrelated to student performance.
- Last minute recitation makeup requests will NOT be accommodated.
- There are NO recitation makeups outside of the instructional week.

General Physics 203 Recitation
Section 23 (Wednesday, 2:00PM – 3:20PM)
FOR-191B (Cook/Douglass)

Instructor: Zain Kamal (zain.eris.kamal@rutgers.edu)

Recitation Structure:

- 3 students per group; TIMED group based worksheets (3 worksheets per recitation)
- 1 point per worksheet – group earns common grade on the worksheets
- No Electronic Resources or Devices may be used during recitation.
- Each student responsible for writing ONE of the worksheets (box or put * next to name to identify writer)
- Be detailed in your step by step work to arrive at the solution to the problem.
- Worksheets are graded based on accuracy of the completed work.
- Final 10-15 minutes of class: independent, closed note quiz (worth 2 points). May use Exam Formula Sheet.
- Weekly grade out of 5 points

How To Prepare for Recitation:

- Watch the pre-recorded videos for each chapter that are posted on the course website.
- Attend the Professor's Weekly Review Sessions offered through WebEx (link available in Canvas)
- Stay on top of the material and do your online Homework Assignments in a timely fashion.
- Go to Professor's or TA office hours to clarify any difficult topics.

Absences and Makeup Policy:

- If you are absent from recitation due to illness (including COVID-19) or other reasons, only ONE makeup during the semester will be permitted during the same week in a different section.
- To participate in a different section, you need permission via E-mail from the Recitation Course Assistant (email address on Canvas).
- Attendance in a different section without prior approval will result in ZERO credit for the recitation.
- To account for all absences, the Professor will drop the lowest two (2) recitation scores at the end of the semester. These dropped scores are strictly related to absences and are unrelated to student performance.
- Last minute recitation makeup requests will NOT be accommodated.
- There are NO recitation makeups outside of the instructional week.